REVOLABS ANNOUNCES NEW CERTIFIED DISTRIBUTOR FOR INDIA

Broadens Global Distribution Network

MAYNARD, Mass., May 10, 2010—Revolabs, Inc. (www.revolabs.com), a leading provider of wireless microphone systems, today announced the signing of a Distribution Agreement with Plus Business Machines Limited (PBML) to increase the awareness and sales of the Revolabs Wireless Microphone product line in India.

Plus Business Machines Limited, headquartered in Mumbai, will leverage its sales and marketing experience, and distribution capabilities within India to establish Revolabs as a preferred audio vendor. Under the terms of the agreement, PBML will also provide service, training, and technical support for Revolabs. The agreement will bolster Revolabs' global expansion.

Roshan Gupta, Revolabs Country Manager for India/SAARC stressed how important the Indian market is to Revolabs. "We chose PBML for their expertise in the audio/visual industry and for their ability to provide a broad range of products as well as technical and application support to their customers. Plus Business Machines Limited is well known throughout India for offering such turnkey audio/visual solutions. The Revolabs Wireless Microphones are an ideal fit with the other premier AV manufacturers that PBML represents, such as Lifesize and Crestron."

"This agreement with Revolabs represents a major commitment to our audio/visual business," said Swadesh Khetawat, Managing Director of PBML. "We are now able to offer an even wider range of innovative products to our customers."
