Revolabs Announces Distribution Agreement with Verrex Asia Ltd.

Strengthens Asian Pacific Distribution Network

MAYNARD, Mass., August 5, 2010– Revolabs, Inc. (www.revolabs.com), a leading provider of wireless microphone systems, today announced the signing of a Distribution Agreement with Hong-Kong based Verrex Asia Limited to increase the awareness and sales of the Revolabs Wireless Microphone product line in the Asian Pacific region.

Verrex Asia Limited will distribute and support the Revolabs products to end-users and system integrators in Asia within the mission of providing audio/visual systems design, engineering, project management, quality assurance, installation and managed services. The agreement will augment Revolabs' existing Asian Pacific sales organization.

"Working with the right partner is essential and Verrex Asia provides the local presence and expertise necessary to position our products successfully in this marketplace," commented Silas Zhou, Revolabs Director of Sales, Greater China. "This relationship will enable us to increase our sales and marketing activities in Hong Kong and the surrounding areas."

"This alliance is a natural one for our company," said Norman Fornella, President & COO, Verrex Asia Limited. "We are enthusiastic about representing Revolabs Wireless Microphones as the products offer unique benefits that are easily incorporated into our AV designs and projects. Our goal is to help Revolabs become a leading microphone provider in the APAC region."
